Aptitude Studio

Aptitude Studio is a dynamic design and architecture firm led by the talented duo Tommaso Calini and Alessandra Cervia.

Known for their innovative approach, they blend creativity with functionality to craft spaces that inspire and endure. Their work spans residential, commercial, and hospitality projects, always prioritizing a thoughtful balance between aesthetics and practicality.

With a keen eye for detail and a passion for sustainable design, Aptitude Studio transforms concepts into reality with precision and flair.

Tommaso and Alessandra's collaborative leadership fosters a studio culture that encourages experimentation and pushes the boundaries of modern design. They are committed to creating environments that not only look beautiful but also enhance the quality of life for those who experience them.

Whether working on a small renovation or a large-scale development, Aptitude Studio's signature style shines through in every project. Their portfolio reflects a diverse range of influences, seamlessly merging contemporary trends with timeless elegance.

With a client-centered approach, Aptitude Studio ensures each project reflects the unique needs and personality of its inhabitants. Through thoughtful design and expert execution, they continue to build a reputation as one of the most promising studios in today's architectural scene.

Arco della Pace Apartment

The Arco della Pace Apartment, designed by Aptitude Studio, is a stunning urban retreat located in one of Milan's most iconic neighborhoods.

This elegant residence captures the essence of city living with a sophisticated yet cozy atmosphere. The apartment's layout maximizes natural light and space, creating an inviting environment perfect for both relaxation and entertaining.

Featuring sleek, modern finishes combined with warm, tactile materials, the design reflects a harmonious blend of comfort and style. Thoughtful details, such as custom cabinetry and carefully selected furnishings, add a personalized touch to the space. The apartment boasts views of the historic Arco della Pace, providing a unique connection to Milan's rich architectural heritage.

With a focus on functionality, the kitchen and living areas flow seamlessly, making daily living effortless. The bedroom offers a peaceful sanctuary, designed with restful tones and textures to promote tranquility. Aptitude Studio's approach ensures that this apartment isn't just a place to live but a true home, reflecting both contemporary elegance and timeless charm.

The Arco della Pace Apartment stands out as a refined example of modern urban design.
